Henry Tan, Group CEO & Chief Innovation Officer said: “In the recent 1-2 years, businesses took time to plan for recovery from the pandemic; and became stronger and more prepared in dealing with economic headwinds and impacts from geopolitical conflicts. We believe that it is the opportune time to advance into new markets. With our many years of experience operating in Singapore, Malaysia and China, we put our focus on Asia as this region will continue to be the economic growth engine of the world well into the 21st century. CLA Global TS country leaders have conducted market studies on various markets and will lead our People in opening new markets within Asia, creating opportunities for our clients to expand regionally and beyond. Such expansions can involve collaboration, acquisitions and mergers with like-minded entities in each of the targeted local markets to best serve our clients.”

With headquarters in Singapore, CLA Global TS has existing operations in Malaysia and Shanghai, China. Operations in the Philippines have been initiated, and more regional expansion plans will be shared at a later date.

Updates on Global Connection – CLA Global

CLA Global TS is the network’s member firm for Singapore, Southeast Asia and China. Recently, CLA Global announced the addition of three independent members – dhpg in Germany, VGD Slovakia and VGD Czech Republic. The CLA Global network expects to announce additional high-profile counterparts and member firms in the coming year.

Henry Tan, Group CEO & Chief Innovation Officer said: “There are many opportunities and growth potential in the network which can contribute positively to our Clients and our People. As CLA Global’s key leading firm in Asia, CLA Global TS is proud to be the first independent member firm to join the network in November last year. We may be a smaller firm among the founding members, we appreciate the opportunity to be one of the network’s board members; contributing to the development of the network.”

Henry sits on the board of the CLA Global network, together with key leaders from CliftonLarsonAllen LLP and Evelyn Partners. In his recent visit to CliftonLarsonAllen’s New York City office, Henry had the chance to connect with leaders and People within the network.

“While CLA Global TS as a firm works on building a Corporate Culture that meets changing needs of talents, I am impressed to see how the People and Culture of CliftonLarsonAllen LLP could contribute greatly to the firm’s growth. People are the most important asset of a company. When our people win, our clients and our communities win,” added Henry.
