Singapore, 28 April 2026 – Over the weekend, CLA Global TS took part in Football With A Heart 2026 \(FWAH 2026\), marking its fourth consecutive year of participation in the annual executive football charity fundraiser, as part of the firm’s continued commitment to giving back to the community through sport.

Football With A Heart, held in conjunction with Weekend With a Heart, is Singapore’s largest executive football charity fundraiser, organised by Singapore Pools, the Football Association of Singapore, and Sport Singapore.

Together with many like-minded corporate partners, CLA Global TS is proud to have contributed to the event’s success, which raised $1.28 million in support of six charities focused on youth programmes: Access, MINDS – Movement for the Intellectually Disabled of Singapore, RiverLife Community Services, SCAPE SG, SportCares, and YGOS – Youth Guidance Outreach Services.

Participating as one of 56 teams in the Corporate Tournament, Team CLA Global TS competed in six spirited and closely contested matches against fellow corporate teams, all united by the event’s shared charitable vision through sport. The team brought together colleagues from across various business units, alongside our overseas interns, with friends and family rallying on the sidelines to cheer them on—proudly bringing the CLA Global TS spirit to the pitch.

“This event uniquely brings our people together to compete as a team while contributing directly to charitable causes that make a difference. This year, we were delighted to welcome our overseas interns from the United States to join us, reflecting how we share our values not only in Singapore but across borders. Sport is a universal language, and through it, we are able to turn shared enjoyment into positive impact for the wider community,” added Mr. Henry Tan.
